CELEBRATE THE FOURTH

Copyright 1906 by Hart Schaffner & Marx

Everyone should have enough patriotism to observe the day in some way, and of course you'll want to look dressed-up, especially if you go away from home. You know what we mean by "dressed-up"—a new suit, hat, shoes, neck tie, etc.,—not just any old thing, but something up-to-now in style and at the same time possessing wearing qualities that can be absolutely depended upon; and the prices, they are no higher than the cheap grades usually sell for.

Hart, Schaffner & Marx Clothes

One of the best things about them is that they're higher-priced than others; that's one of the chief reasons for buying them. They cost us more and you, but they're worth so much more than they cost that we think they're the cheapest clothes made today. You can always buy lower priced clothes than the Hart-Schaffner & Marx make, we have them for sale ourselves. But if you want the best—well, just drop in any day and we'll show you.

Prices $16.50 to $25.00

Extra Specials--Medium-priced Suits

At $10.00, $12.50 and $15.00

When you come to see these suits we want you to expect to see something out of the ordinary; you'll not be disappointed for we believe them to be the greatest bargains we have ever offered at these prices.

These come in solid colors, fancy worsteds and nobby gray mixtures and plaids, the make-up and the style is the same that you'll expect in higher grade clothing—but the price—there's where you will notice the difference, and it will surprise you. Come and see.

—The Undertaker at the Farmer's Hardware Co., will answer your calls promptly, day or night.

Attorney Jas. Fisher, a noted lawyer of Paducah, died at Benton, Friday afternoon. He had been failing in health for some time.

Misses Annie Ellison, Louise Atwood and Floyd Naylor and Edgar Naylor spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Lon Naylor, at Cayce.

Miss Emma Smith, Route 2, will leave on the 18th for Rocky, Okla., to make that place her future home. She will be accompanied by her uncle, W. R. Cole.

The campaign for the United States senate in Mississippi between John Sharp Williams and Governor James K. Vardaman is growing hot, in fact it beats the June days warming up. They have never met in joint debate but will do so July 4, and it is pretty certain that fireworks and brass bands will not be needed to attract a crowd.

Missouri recently passed a 2c passenger fare law to be in effect June 15 1907. On that day, a dreadful and tangled legal fight was precipitated, one side using federal injunction to prevent the law going into effect, the other using state injunction to force the law into immediate effect. The state judge decided that the federal courts had the right of way in his own opinion but thought that the railroads, out of respect to the state law, ought to give the 2c fare law a fair, honest 90 days trial. The judge showed good sense in making this suggestion. It was immediately adopted.

The Courier is pleased to note the improvements in the buildings that have been built at Cayce, to replace those which burned about a year ago. The building of the Naylor Mercantile Co., has been built quite a while, and perhaps covers more floor space than any business house in the county and carries a thoroughly up-to-date stock of goods at all times. The Johnson building has recently been completed and as yet has not been completely fitted out the inside. When these gentlemen get straightened out in new quarters it is needless to say that they will be thoroughly prepared to take care of their trade.

$100,000 Suit.

Suit was filed this week in the Fulton Circuit Court by W. W. Meadows, of Fulton, against Rev. Frank Hawley, recently of Fulton, for $100,000 damages, as follows: $50,000 for alienation of his wife's affections, and $50,000 for emotional damages as a result of said alienation. It will be well remembered that week before last Mr. Hawley was horsewhipped in Fulton by Mr. Meadows, immediately after Hawley arrived in Fulton on the midnight train. Mr. Meadows charged improper relations between Mr. Hawley and his wife. A divorce suit had just been filed in the Fulton Circuit Court by Mrs. Meadows against Mr. Meadows, and Mr. Meadows charged the preacher with having come back to Fulton to assist Mrs. Meadows in the suit.

After the preacher was whipped, it is said, he was taken to the station at Harris, Tenn., several miles distant and put on the train with instructions never to return. He went to the home of his father in Charlotte, N. C. It has been made public that he was contemplating bringing suit in the Federal Court at Paducah, against Mr. Meadows for damages for personal injuries sustained. In a statement made to the Charlotte, N. C. Chronicle, Mr. Hawley denied all the allegations made by Mr. Meadows, and said that he was unmercifully beaten by Mr. Meadows and several other men. He claims that he was waylaid, handcuffed and beaten, and that he was sandwiched upon the back of the neck, he relapsing into unconsciousness, and never regaining consciousness until a short time before the train came which he left on. He denies having signed any kind of statement to remain away from Fulton.

The result of these various suits will be watched for with a great deal of interest throughout the country.

Leg Cut Off By Train.

Mr. John Hillard, of Woodland Mills, was run over by the local freight, at Union City, Tuesday, as it was leaving Union City for Hickman.

Mr. Millard was leaving Union City also for his home in Woodland, and was walking down the tracks in the yard. He was between two tracks. He saw an engine coming down the track, and jumped to the other track to get out of the way.

He never noticed the local coming down the other track, and before he could get off that track the train caught his foot and cut it off.

The limb was amputated just above the ankle, when it was found that the bone was shivered at that place and it was necessary to make another amputation higher.
